

Life in all its fullness

English

- Write a diary as if you were your pet or another animal of your choice.
- Take inspiration from the changing weather and what you can see happening in nature around you and write either a description or a poem.

French

Make an illustrated mini-dictionary of fruit and vegetables. Challenge: colour code each word according to gender (blue for masculine nouns, red for feminine nouns), e.g. une banane, un kiwi.

The Empty Box

You can do anything you like: a presentation or poster on something that interests you; write about something you have done outside school. The possibilities are endless...

Homework ideas

Maths

- Choose an item from nature, i.e. a leaf, a flower etc.. What mathematical facts can you explore about your chosen item. Think about the different ways you could measure it, think about shapes, symmetry and statistics.
- Choose a set of times tables. Explore this set looking for patterns and facts. Create an information sheet about this set of tables including tips on how to learn it.

Topic

- We will be learning about Italy in class but you could choose a different country and create a fact file about your chosen country.
- Research a famous Roman and draw a portrait of them surrounded with annotated facts about them.

Rabbit Class

Summer term

Creative arts

- Have a go at growing a plant. You can also write a diary of its growth
- Create a quiz for your class or your family about plants and their parts and the jobs they do
- Use art materials to create a model or a collage of a plant. Label its parts
- Write an acrostic poem to describe what plants do to grow well
- Go into your garden or nearest green space and using the skills that we will be exploring in the first few Art lessons, create either a drawing or a painting of something that you find.
- In class, we will be creating sculptures; you could create a sculpture of your own from any material that you have to hand.
- A mosaic is a type of collage. You could create a different type of collage of anything that inspires you.
